

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

LUIS COLON-VELEZ,

Defendant.

CRIMINAL NO. 06-310 (JAG)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Defendant Luis Colón-Vélez was charged in a two counts Indictment. Count One charges: On or about May 22, 2006, in the District of Puerto Rico and within the jurisdiction of this Court, Luis Colón, aka “Memo” along with a co-defendant, aiding and abetting each other, did knowingly and unlawfully possess with intent to distribute, five (5) grams or more of cocaine base (Crack Cocaine), a Schedule II, Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance. All in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(a)(1). Count Two charges: On or about May 23, 2006 in the District of Puerto Rico and within the jurisdiction of this Court, Luis Colón-Vélez, aka “Memo” along with a co-defendant, aiding and abetting each other, did knowingly and unlawfully possess with intent to distribute, five (5) grams or more of cocaine base (Crack Cocaine), a Schedule II, Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance. All in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(a)(1).

Defendant appeared before this Magistrate Judge on February 22, 2007, since the Rule 11 hearing was referred by the court. Defendant was provided with the Waiver of Right to Trial

United States of America v. Luis Colón-Vélez
Report and Recommendation
Criminal No. 06-310(JAG)
Page No. 2

by Jury, which he signed and agreed upon voluntarily after examination in open court, under oath.

Defendant indicated and confirmed his intention to plead guilty to the counts one and two of the Indictment, upon being advised of his right to have said proceedings before a district judge of this court.¹ Upon verifying through defendant's statement his age, education and any relevant aspect as to the use of medication, drugs, alcohol or substance dependency, and psychological or psychiatric condition, to ascertain his capacity and ability to understand, answer and comprehend the interactive colloquy with this Magistrate Judge, a determination was made as to defendant's competency and ability to understand the proceedings.

Having further advised defendant of the charges contained in Counts One and Two he was examined and verified as being correct that: he had consulted with his counsel, Attorney Alexander Zeno, prior to the hearing for change of plea, that he was satisfied with the services provided by his legal representatives and had time to discuss with him all aspects of the case, insofar, among other things, regarding the change of plea, the consent to proceed before a United States Magistrate Judge, the content of the Indictment and charges therein, his constitutional rights and the consequences of the waiver of same.

Defendant was specifically appraised by this Magistrate Judge that, upon withdrawing his initial plea of not guilty and now entering a plea of guilty to the charges specified, he was waiving his right to a public, speedy, and a trial by jury constituted by twelve jurors who have ¹ The form entitled Consent to Proceed Before a United States Magistrate Judge in a Felony Case for Pleading Guilty (Rule 11, Fed.R.Crim.P.) and Waiver of Jury Trial, signed and consented by both parties is made part of the record.

United States of America v. Luis Colón-Vélez
Report and Recommendation
Criminal No. 06-310(JAG)
Page No. 3

to unanimously agree to a verdict. He was also waiving his right to be presumed innocent and for the government to meet the obligation of establishing his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Furthermore, he was waiving his right during said trial to confront the witnesses who were to testify against him and be able to cross-examine them, through counsel at said trial, as well as present evidence on his behalf. He was also waiving the right to compel the attendance of witnesses and that subpoenas be issued to have them appear in court to testify. Defendant was specifically appraised of his right to take the stand and testify, if he so decided, or not to testify, and no inference or decision as to his guilt could be made from the fact if he decides not to testify. Defendant was also explained his right not to incriminate himself; that upon such a waiver of all above-discussed rights a judgment of guilty and his sentence were to be based on his plea of guilty, and he would be sentenced by the judge after considering the information contained in a pre-sentence report.

As to all the above, defendant provided an individualized and positive acknowledgment of each and every waiver and, with the assistance of his counsel, indicated he freely and voluntarily waived those rights and understood the consequences. During all this colloquy, defendant was made aware that he could freely request from this Magistrate Judge any additional clarification, repetition, or ask questions and that he may consult with his attorney at any given time as to any issue.

Defendant expressed his understanding of the penalties prescribed by statute for the offense as to which he was pleading guilty. The penalty for the offenses Counts One and Two are a term of imprisonment of not less than five (5) years and not more than forty (40) years,

United States of America v. Luis Colón-Vélez
Report and Recommendation
Criminal No. 06-310(JAG)
Page No. 4

a fine not to exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000.00), and a term of supervised release of not more than four (4) years, in addition to the term of incarceration, and a mandatory penalty assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00), per count.

Having ascertained directly from defendant that he had not been induced in any way to plead guilty, that no one had forced him in any way to plead guilty, nor that he had been offered any reward or any other thing of value to get him to plead guilty, the document entitled "Plea Agreement (Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) & (B) FRCP)" (the Agreement) was shown to defendant, verifying his signature.

Pursuant to said Agreement, and insofar as Counts One and Two, as to which defendant already was aware of the maximum possible penalties, defendant was appraised that it was up to the sole discretion of the sentencing court what the sentence to be imposed on him will be. Defendant was specifically informed that if the sentencing court were to impose a sentence which turned out to be higher or more severe than the one he might be expecting, for said reason alone, defendant would have no grounds for the court to allow him to withdraw his plea of guilty.

The above-captioned parties' estimate and agreement appear on page four (4), paragraph seven (7) of the Agreement, regarding the possible applicable Sentencing Guidelines, were further elaborated and explained. It was defendant's understanding that the Base Offense Level is of Twenty-six (26), pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2D1.1(7). Pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(b), the base offense level shall be reduced by three (3) levels for acceptance of responsibility. Accordingly, the Total Base Offense Level would be Twenty-Three (23). The parties do not

United States of America v. Luis Colón-Vélez
Report and Recommendation
Criminal No. 06-310(JAG)
Page No. 5

stipulate any criminal history category for defendant. However, should the defendant qualify and meet all the requirements of the safety valve, a two level reduction would be applied for a Total Offense Level of Twenty-One (21).

The parties agree to recommend to the Court a term of imprisonment of sixty (60) months. However, should the defendant qualify and meet all the requirements of the safety valve, the parties would recommend that the defendant be sentenced at the lower end of the applicable sentencing guideline range.

Defendant was explained by this Magistrate Judge, and by her counsel as to the safety valve provisions, if these were to be applicable to his case, including the five (5) requirements to be met, as explained in detail in paragraph eight (8) of the Agreement. The parties do not stipulate as to any Criminal History Category for the defendant.

Defendant was specifically informed that the above sentencing calculations were not binding for the sentencing court, but were only estimates of possible terms of his sentence, which could always be imposed, at the sole discretion of the court, up to the maximum penalties allowed by statute, and dependent upon the information and verification thereof of the pre-sentence report that the court would have before it at the time of imposition of the sentence.

The government presented to this Magistrate Judge and to defendant, assisted by his counsel, a summary of the basis in fact for the offenses charged and the evidence the government had available to establish, in the event defendant had elected to go to trial, the commission of the offense, beyond a reasonable doubt. Counsel and defendant acknowledged the evidence of the government was fully disclosed to them and previously discussed between

United States of America v. Luis Colón-Vélez
Report and Recommendation
Criminal No. 06-310(JAG)
Page No. 6

the three. Defendant was able to understand their explanation and agreed with the government's submission. Defendant was also read and shown a written document entitled "Statement of Facts", which had been signed by defendant and his counsel and is attached to the Plea Agreement, wherein the signature of counsel for the government also appears.

Defendant was explained that the plea agreement with the government does not bind any other district, except the district of Puerto Rico, and it contained all the promises, terms and conditions which defendant, his attorney and the government, have entered.

Having once more ascertained that defendant has indicated not being induced to plead guilty, and was entering such a plea because in fact he is guilty, without any promises or predictions being made as to the sentence to be imposed by the court, defendant was informed that parole has been abolished under the applicable Sentencing Reform Act and that any sentence of imprisonment would be served, without him being released on parole. Defendant was additionally informed that prior to sentence, the sentencing judge will have a pre-sentence report and that it would be made available to him, to his counsel and to the government, so that they be allowed to correct or object to any information contained in said report which was not accurate. Depending on the facts found by the court at the time and the sentence imposed, both defendant and the government may appeal the sentence of the court.²

Defendant was read in open court and shown the Indictment, indicating he availed himself of the opportunity to further discuss same with his attorney and then he positively stated

² The right to appeal is subject to certain limitations allowed by law since the Agreement also includes paragraph eighteen (18 for a waiver of appeal.

United States of America v. Luis Colón-Vélez
Report and Recommendation
Criminal No. 06-310(JAG)
Page No. 7

that what was contained in Counts One and Two was what he had done and to which he was pleading guilty during these proceedings. Thereafter, defendant expressed in no uncertain terms that he agreed with the government's evidence as to his participation in the offense. Thereupon, defendant indicated he was pleading guilty to Counts One and Two of the Indictment in Criminal No. 06-310 (JAG).

This Magistrate Judge after having explained to the defendant his rights, ascertaining that he was acting freely and voluntarily to the waiver of such rights and in his decision of pleading guilty, with full knowledge of the consequences thereof, and there being a basis in fact for such a plea, is recommending that a plea of guilty be entered as to Counts One and Two of the Indictment in Criminal No. 06-310 (JAG).

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED.

The sentence will be scheduled promptly before Honorable Jay A. García-Gregory, District Judge.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 23th day of February of 2007.

S/CAMILLE L. VELEZ-RIVE
CAMILLE L. VELEZ-RIVE
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE